THAT the merchant who increases his turnover at the same selling expense, increases his profits. The short road to a quick turnover is ADVERTISING.
THAT attractive ADVERTISING attracts the attention of the buying public.
THAT ADVERTISING causes people to center their minds on certain articles at certain stores.
THAT the business of the merchant who ADVERTISES quality merchandise is always active.
THAT all goods are not alike, though they may look alike.
ADVERTISED goods are as represented.
THAT the future of a business depends on straightforward, intelligent, skillful, modern business methods, plus ADVERTISING.
THAT the business that is "stepping forward" ADVERTISES.
THAT merchandise must be bought by the dealer to sell to the people at the right price.
THAT live merchants keep business good by selling good merchandise and ADVERTISING that fact.
THAT they should get more good business by ADVERTISING more.
THAT courtesy is a salesman that helps ADVERTISING sell goods.
THAT many people hesitate in buying and are not sure as to what, where and when to buy. Help them by ADVERTISING.

ST. JOHN'S CATHOLIC CHURCH FINANCIAL REPORT FOR YEAR 1929.

Last Sunday the pastor read the financial report for the year 1929. He sincerely thanked members of the congregation for their co-operation and generosity during the year and expressed the wish that they would continue to give the same whole-hearted support in the future. The report showed that the parish is in a very healthy condition financially, although the past year was one of the worst in the history of the parish. The total receipts, which amounted to $7,637.74, far exceeded the receipts of past years.

Baptisms, 112; Deaths, Mexicans included, 17; Marriages, 17; Families, 102; Individual Souls, 380.

I wish to take this opportunity to again thank the parishioners and our good friends for their co-operation and help. Duty fulfilled will bring its own reward.

RECORD BREAKING COLD.

Following the drizzly weather of last week, it began turning cold rapidly about four o'clock Friday afternoon, January 17, and by Saturday morning the temperature had dropped to the unusually low point of 10 degrees above zero. Water pipes were generally frozen and considerable damage was caused from bursting pipes.

The weather moderated somewhat the first of the week, but another norther coming Tuesday night the thermometer dropped to 13 by Wednesday morning. Freezing temperature has prevailed every night for a week, and ice in shaded places has not melted during the entire time.

"Old Residents" do not recall a cold spell of such protracted duration in this section. Stock have suffered, but we have heard of no losses so far.

Flowers were almost entirely destroyed. To what extent the oat crop is damaged remains to be determined.

Protracted cold spell in this section

There is nothing new in the situation. It has existed for decades, but has grown worse as the prisons have become more crowded.

It is doubtful if the present legislative session will adopt either the majority or the minority report of the prison committee that has been making a study of the problem. Possibly it should not.

It is admitted that overcrowding is the largest contributing factor to prison evils. Next to that is laziness.

Next is lack of sympathetic efforts at helping the prisoners—human contact with human beings in need of help—recognition of the fact that all prisoners, though convicts, are not criminals at heart—that many are sick in mind or body and need treatment—that all need training, more even than punishment.

Smaller Prison Groups

Texas has grown too large to group all its prisoners at one place or to handle them as though they were all criminal alike.

More prisoners need to be schooled more than punished, many need hospitalization more than imprisonment. Results that are needed can be brought about better in smaller groups.

Why not start now and build a small model prison, probably two or three of them, eventually one in each congressional district, and begin to treat convicts like human beings, giving the opportunity to become well, to be educated, to be trained to useful labor, to useful citizenship.

There is no maudlin sentiment in this suggestion. Some convicts, but by no means all, can never be reformed; some require and should receive the severest punishment meted out by law, but there are enough of the other kind to make the effort worth while.

LIEUTENANT EDDLEMAN LOSES FATHER.

Lieutenant C. D. Eddleman returned today from Lake Charles, La., where he was called on Tuesday of last week on account of the illness of his aged father. His father passed away Tuesday, January 21, and was buried at Lake Charles the following day.

Lieutenant Eddleman has the sympathy of all who know him in his double bereavement, having suffered the loss of his two-year-old son, C. D., Jr., while on a visit to his parents in Lake Charles just six weeks prior to the death of his father.

TEXAS & TEXANS

TEXAS AND TEXANS.

By Will H. Mayes

Pride in Texas Progress

"All Texans for all Texas" would be a good state motto. No State in the Union, no country in the world, has better opportunities for rapid progress than Texas, but for some reason we are not taking all the advantages we might of those opportunities.

Almost every one worth counting as a citizen has some degree of local pride in his immediate community, but Texas is so big that it is hard for some of us to stretch our pride enough to cover the whole State.

The truth is that when we think of the bigness of the State some of us give up trying to know much about it and limit our efforts to the little horizon about us.

More than anything else just now Texas needs an awakening of State pride such as is found in some States that are outgrowing Texas.

Texans need to know Texas and all that it has to offer. They need to lay aside local selfishness sufficiently to make room for pride in the entire State.

What builds Texas builds every community in Texas. The entire State and whatever is in it is in some degree yours. A good school in the remotest part of the State makes for good citizenship in every part. A dollar added to the wealth of the farthest county adds a dollar to State wealth and to that extent helps you.

The newspapers can do more than any other agency to break down a spirit of shriveled locism that is harming many communities and replace it with an enthusiasm broad enough to cover all Texas and every interest in the State.

The Penitentiary Problem

No Texan can know at first hand the conditions prevailing at the State penitentiary and penal farms without hanging his head in shame at "man's inhumanity to man." Something should be done about it and done quickly.

The fault is not with the prison management, but with the prison system. The state itself is at blame in that it has not realized that a deplorable condition should be met with determination—and energy.

There is nothing new in the situation. It has existed for decades, but has grown worse as the prisons have become more crowded.

It is doubtful if the present legislative session will adopt either the majority or the minority report of the prison committee that has been making a study of the problem. Possibly it should not.

BIG CONVENTION

Texas Guests Journeyed to Queenly
City of Uvalde for Biggest
"Border Way" Convention Ever Held

By Byrd Pearce Hamilton
Montell, Texas, Jan. 20, 1930—
Somewhere along "The Border Way," or U. S. Highway No. 90 in Texas, it seems that almost all of the towns are unusually colorful and outstanding. These Border Way towns are developing and growing so rapidly that they are yet screaming with "growing pains." Even San Antonio and El Paso, the two largest and extreme Eastern and Western cities of the route, have cast off their swaddling clothes, but these husky, bustling cities cannot be considered as having reached their majority, a pinnacle of growth.

Each Town Peculiarly Outstanding
Each of the following towns on "The Border Way" is the visible result of the plan, or dream of some pioneer (maybe forgotten). But the spirit lives on, and that something, let it be seen, which distinguishes towns which do not "just happen" lives on, and becomes the driving power, or soul of the community. In the weaving of the web in the patterning of Great Cities and outstanding towns, there are always Community builders, or leaders, who have given their time and means unselfishly, to build such towns, as are briefly mentioned below:

Quaint San Antonio; Castroville and Hondo, the nimrod's delight, and where winter gardens flourish; D-Hanis, noted for brick manufacturing; picturesque Sabinal, surrounded by fertile valleys; stately Uvalde, principally the subject of this article; ancient Brackettville, where Fort Clark is located; colorful Del Rio, with its twin city, Villa Acuna, Mexico; Langtry, famous as the home of Roy Bean, The Law West of the Pecos, and near one of the highest bridges in the world; Sanderson, important railway division point and sheep country; and even the little town of Marathon is famous as the home of the only rubber factory in the United States, although the factory is at this time inactive; lofty Alpine, where dreams come true; Marfa, headquarters of the famous Highland Hereford Association and U. S. Army Post town; Valentine, Van Horn and Sierra Blanca, all Texas Highway scenic towns, with the mining and livestock industries predominating, the post of Torreón, Fabens and Clint, where the country of big ranches is merging into an agricultural farming district; now comes famous Old Ysleta and on the extreme West is the Pass City—El Paso.

All of these towns are so intensely absorbing, that it is difficult to select any one of them and centralize on the beauty, history and legendary lore, but as stately Uvalde is to occupy the center of "The Border Way" stage for the next few weeks, it is fitting that readers be given a bit of information about this particular "Border Way" city. The many prominent Texans who attended the big Highway gathering in Uvalde on January 23, are interested in something of the history, resources, educational and recreational features of Uvalde.

Origin of Name and Early History
In the dim past, before Texas became independent of Mexico, there was a Mexican officer, Col. Jose Uvalde, who was an Indian fighter in the section now called Uvalde County. This Mexican officer distinguished himself in battles with the hostile Indians, and from this noted Mexican Uvalde gets its name.

Uvalde County was organized May 12, 1856. The first Commissioners' Court named Gid Thompson, W. W. Arnett and John Bowles to lay off the county seat. During the first years of the existence of Uvalde County, the warring and raiding Indians were still very much in evidence, and John Bowles, one of those pioneers who helped to lay off message told of unprecedented public interest in the new car and a consequent increase in retail sales, with the result that the January schedule had to be revised upward to meet dealer requirements for immediate delivery, Mr. Klingler said.

That the step-up in the schedule resulted directly from the number of orders taken for the new car when it made its public bow, rather than upon an estimate of the months requirements, is indicated in a statement from the Chevrolet sales executive:

"Our policy for some time," Mr. Klingler explained, "has been to key our production facilities to the anticipated needs of our sales organization so that dealers might not become over-stocked. On this basis we set our January schedule to parallel the sales forecast, but so many dealers, upon noting the public attitude toward the new car, have asked to have their quotas increased that our output for the month will now exceed the figure for last January."

Messages from our dealers relating the public attitude toward the new car have come to us in greater numbers this year than heretofore, and every message radiates a note of complete confidence over the year's prospect. Large dealers are increasing their commitments for cars, and many small dealers, who formerly sold six to eight cars in a year, have asked to have the new 1930 car shipped to them in carload lots.

"The reduced prices on the new car contributed materially to the increased public interest shown this year, as did the mechanical improvement. The price reduction resulted directly from manufacturing economies effected by our record output in 1929, and our policy of passing on to the consuming public the savings effected by volume production are directly reflected in the low price of the new car."

"On the basis of present indication we expect the early months of this year to prove exceedingly satisfactory, and look to the year 1930 to compare very favorably with 1929 when we built 1,350,000 sixes, a new high record."

Messages received by Mr. Klingler indicate that the national attendance the first day of the showing of the 1930 models, and the favorable comments of the public, exceeded even that which greeted the first appearance of the Chevrolet Six a year ago. Typical of many messages received by Mr. Klingler is one from the Los Angeles dealer organization: "Reception of new car by public, dealers and salesmen best for last four years. All amazed at price reduction. Many thousands of people attended showrooms. Even greater attendance than last year when we first introduced the Chevrolet six."

Expressions of confidence that their sales for this year would exceed any previous year came from dealers in all parts of the country. At Great Falls, Mont., rural prospects drove to the showrooms in sleighs to see the car. Chicago wired: "We will require in our territory more cars for the next three months than we received last year same period."

Messages from big and little towns struck the same note. Clovis, New Mexico, registered 500 in the snowrooms the first day out of a population of 7,500. Minneapolis reported the largest first-day crowd in ten years experienced, and Baltimore the sale of 105 cars before 5:00 p. m.

"At no time has the financial future looked better," said the Patterson, New Jersey, dealer. "If there is such a thing as a one hundred per cent car I feel I have it." And from Seattle: "All dealers expect more business in January and February than last year."

OAKLAND MOTOR EQUIPPED WITH "SYNCHRONIZER."

among the new inventions responsible for the smoothness with which Oakland V-type Eight delivers its tremendous power, is a simple and ingenious device bearing a newly-devised name—"the synchronizer."

It operates in conjunction with an entirely new type of front engine mounting—two sets of flat laminated shims that absorb the normal operating reaction of the motor by permitting a very slight horizontal movement at the forward end of the engine plant. Two rubber-cushioned units anchor the rear of the engine securely to the car frame.

The function of the "synchronizer," to permit this normal microscopic movement at the front of the engine, is preventing the motor, under impact of road shocks, from experiencing that movement. The "synchronizer" so name because it synchronizes with the normal rate of engines reactions, provided between the front of the engine and the car

a restraining tie rod which limits the horizontal movement.

This tie rod, solidly bolted to the side of the car frame, extends through an opening into the crank-case. There its point of contact with the engine is a vertical rocker arm which is moved slightly from side to side by a cam on the forward end of the camshaft. The cam is so designed that the rocker arm moves in perfect harmony with the normal engine reactions, its movement being so smooth as to be almost undetectable.

A 200-pound spring within the engine case holds the tie rod closely against a depression in the rocker arm. Thus, if a road shock should send the engine to the right, the movement would be restrained by the

THE FARMER'S WIFE.

By R. L. Campbell

The farmer leads a busy life, But what about his little wife? She's out of bed by break of day And in the kitchen right away. With breakfast ready for the men She then must rush and set a hen. She sweeps the floors, gets up the grub, And then the kitchen floor must scrub. She milks a half a dozen cows, Then works the garden, hoes or plows; She looks out for the children's needs, Then does the washing, pulls some weeds. She then must cook the noonday meal And slop the hogs before they squeal. Then with her dishes cleared away She helps the children with their play; She churns the butter, gathers eggs, And hangs the wash upon the pegs. She feeds the poultry, peels the spuds, Sews patches on the family duds. Then with approach of setting time Those cows again she milks,—what fun! An evening meal she must prepare, Then stow the brooms away with care. The dishes then she clears away And checks the bills she soon must pay. Then with her letters still unread She tucks the children in their bed; Then in a straight-backed chair she rocks And tries to darn the children's socks. Some say she leads an idle life! That happy queen,—the farmer's wife.

TWO CHILDREN.

The rich man's child and the poor man's child.

Once met on a city street—And one was languid and thin, and worn With cares—and the city's heat; But the other—a picture of keen contrast—Was aglow with childish glee; He never had felt the pang of want, For the rich man's child was he.

Oh, the rich man's child—they had called him wise—Prattled much, of many things: Of giants and pygmies and folk so strange, That were ruled by roaring kings. He talked of the fairies, their magic wands—Oh, he told a story well; But—the poor man's child began speaking now, For he, too, had something to tell:

"High up in the land o' th' clouds an' sky, Lives a man, real an' great, an' good; He loves yer more 'an yer mother does, An' more 'an yer father could—"

As the rich child heard, his wonder grew, And his face waxed sweet with surprise; He had not known of the Savior above—Oh, why had they called him wise?

—Walter R. Adams.

I WATCHED A LONE BIRD.

I watched a lone bird,
Careening
Against a greying sky
Before the day
Slipped into night.
I watched it rise and fall
And sweep and dart—
I would be a lone bird,
Flying, unafraid!

—Mary Octavia Davis.

MORNING'S FIRST CALL.

A Mockingbird comes regularly to sing me his morning hymn, He perches himself most faithfully on a big tree limb, Then and there begins a volume of notes All from that wee little throat As inspiringly he sings: "Tis daybreak, duties should begin, God's blessings on you all, Amen!"

I lie on my bed and drink in those liquid notes o'erhead, Their exquisiteness could lift one from a deep dungeon To the highest cliff. Good little samaritan of the heart, How alluring and comprehensive is your part For nature's call is the sweetest of them all.

—Elizabeth Giles Winn.

FAREWELL.

By Blythe Gwyn Sears.

The year and I have been good friends, We've walked a trail together; And when my heart was chill with fear, He lent his sunshine weather; And when his days were grey with clouds, And all those clouds were snowing, I smiled my very brightest smile And cheered his heart to glowing.

The parting of the way has come, Old friend, it's now December; But all the happy hours we've spent, I hope we'll both remember. Your work is done; you now may rest While I walk on, not knowing How far it is to journey's end Or whether I am going.

HAVE YOU SEEN THESE TWO GREAT NEW CARS?

NEW OAKLAND 8

GENERAL MOTORS' Lowest-priced Eight—

$1045 AND UP

Three years of actual designing and testing preceded the announcement of the New Oakland Eight. In addition it incorporates General Motors' sixteen years' experience in building fine eight-cylinder automobiles. This mature background accounts for its sound basic design.

Superior Performance

The New Oakland has an 85-horsepower engine. This is the highest power ever employed in a car of Oakland's size and weight, racing cars excepted.

Oakland develops one horsepower to 37 pounds of car weight. That's why few cars are as fast. That's why few, if any, can pass it on the hills. That's why it accelerates so rapidly. In fact, that is the reason for its superior performance.

Eight-Cylinder Performance

With its high speed and fast acceleration, the new Oakland combines the smoothness resulting from the overlapping power impulses inherent in eight-cylinder design. This smoothness is intensified by such features as its complete down-draft fuel distribution, its patented laminated spring and rubber engine mountings and a new type of cylinder head which assures uniform combustion.

Only a close inspection and a demonstration will enable you to understand fully the many advantages provided by the New Oakland Eight.

The New Oakland Eight, $1045 and up, f. o. b. Pontiac, Michigan, plus delivery charges. Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers included in list prices. Bumpers, rear fender guards and spring covers extra. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

NEW PONTIAC BIG 6

A FAMOUS NAME— A Finer Car—

$745 AND UP

Once again Pontiac has improved upon a car already noted for its excellent qualities. To the hundreds of thousands who own Pontiacs, and to everyone interested in low-priced automobiles, this announcement is important. For it introduces the New Series Pontiac Big Six—a new and finer car with a famous name.

New Beauty, Smoothness, Safety

Smart new bodies by Fisher make the New Series Big Six a more beautiful Pontiac. Pontiac's smoothness is increased by a new type of rubber supports for its 60-horsepower engine.

Improved non-squeak four-wheel brakes and a new sloping non-glare windshield add to the car's safety.

Time-Tried Performance

When these and other improvements were being made, all of Pontiac's basic big car excellence was retained.

Come in. Let us show you the many advantages of this finer car with a famous name—the New Series Pontiac Big Six.

WATER DISTRICT TAXING ILLEGAL

Austin, Jan. 22.—The Supreme Court Wednesday refused a writ of error in the case of the State of Texas vs. Bexar, Medina and Atascosa Counties Water Improvement District No. 1, holding, in effect, that such districts are exempted from taxation. The State brought suit to recover taxes for the years 1927 and 1928, alleged to be due the State and Medina County, aggregating $56,987, together with penalties and costs. The taxes were assessed against lands used for dam sites, canals, reservoirs and other purposes for which the district was organized.

The trial court rendered judgment for $57,514 and this was reversed by the Fourth Court of Civil Appeals at San Antonio, the Appellate Court rendering judgment for the water improvement district.

BADGERS DROP GAME TO UVALDE HIGH COYOTES

Artist Unable to Play Usual Fast Game on Court; Lose Spirit Under Poor Refereeing

Handicapped by having to play on dirt court and discouraged by poor officiating by the referee Hondo Badgers were defeated by Uvalde High School 38 to 16 last Saturday.

The game started with the Coyotes taking a lead for the first quarter, but as the Badgers became more accustomed to moving about on the court they tied the score 9 all. In the third period the Badgers took the momentum, but the Uvalde players were permitted to charge and forced their way through for a score of 20 to 16 in favor of the Coyotes, but the Badgers lost their fighting spirit about receiving several raw decisions and allowed the Uvalde squad to run up 18 points and did not score themselves.

Talley and Rutherford led the Uvalde scorers with 9 and 8 points respectively. Wright and Snooks tied each scoring 5 points. George Wilson, although the smallest player in the court, turned in the neatest game for either squad. The Baptists for the first time this season won up while in game and found that they must fight all the time if they are to make a creditable showing.

TULLA HIGH SCHOOL WINS GAME FROM HONDO OWLS; MEITZEN STARS

Hondo's Owls were defeated last day by Cotulla High School 21 to 14 on the local court. The reason the Owls' loss was Meitzen, crafty forward for Cotulla. Meitzen did seem to notice the cold that was gripping both teams and would move around the court with ease and grace. He scored 15 of the Cowboys' points. After Cotulla got in the lead, Meitzen took to shooting long and on all angles making several remarkable shots.

The Hondo boys could not get going in the cold gym and missed several crisp shots because of cold fingers. Stanley was high scorer for the Owls with 7 points. It was noticeable that the Owls missed a number of free throws, while Cotulla was taking most of their foul tosses. The line-ups were:

PEARSSALL TOWN TEAM WINS SECOND GAME FROM INDIANS; SCORE; 13 TO 11

Two lucky long shots by Rundell beat the Hondo Indians in their own game with the Pearsall team on the local court Saturday night. The final score was 13 to 11. The game was close and hard fought throughout, with Hondo holding the lead only once. In the final period, Indians got an 11 to 9 lead on their rivals, but Rundell came down with a one hand toss from the three-point line and a moment later sank a shot from mid-court for the winning points.

Fasler, speedy Indian forward, a high scorer with six points to his credit. Rundell came next with five points. The line-ups were:

YANCEY HIGH RECEIVES
FIRST DEFEAT OF SEASON
IN GAME WITH BAPTIST

Monro Badgers Stop Winning Streak
That Had Reached
18 Games

Yancey High School was defeated by the Baptist Badgers 19 to 18 on the local court Monday night. It was the first defeat of the season for the Tigers, who had won their 18 games thus far this season. A determination to win on the part of the Baptist and over confidence for Yancey were the factors of the game. The Hondo boys were fighting from the start of the game until a final whistle and never eased up the drive they started the game with.

In the first half the Badgers completely outplayed the Tigers. The visitors were unable to force their way through the Hondo defense with their usual drive and got only three crisp shots the first two periods, two of which they made. In the first quarter the Tigers failed to score, while the Baptist were making five points and in the second period the Baptist got six more tallies to five that the Yancey squad scored. In the second half the Hondo team lost several players for excessive fouling and Burgin "got right" on his long shots to make the game end like a movie thriller. In the final session first one team and then the other the teams were tied several times and would take a one-point lead.

The outstanding player of the game was B. C. Rucker, tanky Badger center. B. C. was giving his team the tip-off and playing a superior game on both offence and defence. Sharing honors with Rucker was B. Bailey, the scrappy Hondo guard, who prevented the Yancey forwards from getting past him for crisp shots many times. Burgin was the outstanding player for the Tigers, his accurate long shooting nearly giving them the victory in the closing minutes of the game. Jones took the offensive honor by scoring 14 points.

The line-ups were:
Badgers (19) (18) Yancey
Jones (14) ..... (2) Berry

YANCEY NEWS.

We had a serious accident in our community last Wednesday, when Mr. Ed. Saathoff had the misfortune to shoot his left hand almost entirely off. He had just returned from Hondo and saw several hawks near the house. He took his gun with intent to kill them, but as he was walking along, a pebble got in his shot and in trying to remove it, the gun discharged, tearing away his left hand. A neighbor, Mr. Dan McCrea, who was near, rushed him to Hondo, where doctors and nurses were in readiness to amputate the hand. He has been getting along fairly well and will be able to leave the hospital in a day or so.

We are sorry to report a message received from San Antonio telling of an accident which happened to Anna Ward last Saturday. While she was close to the gas heater, her clothes became ignited and she received painful burns on her back and hands, and had to be taken to a hospital for treatment. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson were San Antonio visitors last week.

Mr. G. C. McAnelly returned from San Antonio after several days stay there.

Mrs. Vincent Haass and sister, Miss Bess Saathoff, came out from San Antonio to see their brother, Ed, after the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Polk Childress and son, Billy, stopped at Mr. S. P. Childress' on their way home from Overton, where they had been spending the holidays. They left for their home in Mirando City where Mr. Childress has been employed for the last four or five years.

Announcements were received of the marriage of Mr. Marvin Berry and Miss Dorothy Gilder. They are at home at Refugio, Texas. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nixon went to San Antonio on business and pleasure last week.

Mesdames Shultz and Hall were weekend visitors in San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaughey received the news of the birth of a daughter to Mrs. Gordon Houseworth of Wharton. The babe lived only a few hours. We extend sympathy.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Henley of Kenah, relatives of Mesdames Geo. Fassler and C. J. Wiemers, were here visiting several days last week.

Mr. Fred Neuman is at Hondo visiting relatives and friends.

Owing to the bad weather the attendance at the churches was very small.

BOY SCOUTS URGED TO CELEBRATE TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY.

Anniversary week begins Friday, February the 7th, with community day, a day to be used by all troops to make the community in which they live conscious of the fact that there are some real Boy Scouts about. It can be done by a troop good turn to the city, schools, churches, associated charities and in many other ways.

February the 8th is the big day of the week in that it is the birthday of the Scout Program in America.

Twenty years have passed, and from the small beginning in Washington, D. C., more than four million Scouts have been directly influenced by this program. 825,000 are now trying to do their daily good turns and have said: "On my honor I will do my best to do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout Laws; to help other people at all times, to keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight."

Can anyone estimate the good accomplished to our nation and its future than, when at 8 p. m. Friday the 8th these Scouts and some 175,000 volunteer leaders stand and, at the same time all over the country, recommit themselves to the Scout Oath and Law?

Scout Sunday comes February the 9th. Every minister in the Area is urged to dedicate one service, or at least a few minutes to the boys of that institution by referring to some of the great Scouts of the Bible, and especially Jesus, the Great Scoutmaster of all good Scouts.

Monday is Home Day. Scouts, do your good turns to Mother and others in the home.

Tuesday is health day. Really check up on yourself. How much should a boy of your age weigh? How tall are you? How are your teeth? Your tonsils? In other words you cannot be a good Scout until you have done everything possible to have a normal healthy body.

Wednesday is vacation day. What are you going to do in life? Have you really thought the matter over seriously? Talk it over with Dad and some of your men friends. Try out the busiest man in town, make a date with him.

Thursday is school day. Look yourself right square in the face, and ask, "What am I really accomplishing in school? Am I really training my mind to think?" (You have to think if you expect to succeed in life.) Remember, you cannot be a "Good Scout" if you are not a good Scout at school.

All together let's make this week count, check up on all of the things above, and then some.

La Pryor Troop No. 18, Del Rio Troop No. 20, Crystal City Troop No. 19 and Brackettville Troop No. 14 are some of the old troops that have re-registered lately. New troops are Crystal City No. 31, Crystal City No. 23, Vance No. 12 and Spofford No. 22. We welcome these new troops into our brotherhood.

A report of our Annual Council Meeting will be given you next week.

DEMAND FOR SARGON HAS BROKEN ALL RECORDS

Famous Medicine Rapidly Becoming Household Word Throughout America—24 Carloads Sold in 25 Days in 27 States—Overwhelming Demand the One Great Outstanding Proof of Its Wonderful Merit.

Most medicines are sold by the dozen or by the gross. A few are sold in larger quantities, but think of a medicine that sells in such enormous quantities that wholesale dealers are forced to buy it in solid carload lots to supply a demand that has been so phenomenal as to almost stagger the imagination.

That's just what has happened with Sargon, the celebrated new medicine that is now sweeping the country like a great tidal wave. Not only is the trade buying it in carload lots, but they are buying carload after carload, each car containing over 20,000 bottles of Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills.

Twenty-four carloads in 25 days sold in only 27 states is the amazing record recently made by these wonderful medicines.

In the State of California where Sargon was introduced in April of last year, it has required 21 carloads to supply the ever increasing demand in this one state alone. Texas dealers required 9 carloads in only four months.

A single New York firm, with wholesale clients in leading cities, is selling at the rate of over a million and a quarter bottles a year.

"Phenomenal and bewildering" is the way one of the big drug jobbers of the country describes the marvelous demand for Sargon.

It's the greatest seller within the memory of the oldest members of our organization, said another.

"We are selling more Sargon than any other ten medicines put together," said still another.

And so it is everywhere Sargon has been introduced. From Coast to Coast, and from the Gulf to the Great Lakes, Sargon is known and honored.

Millions upon millions have used it and have told other millions what it has done for them. When suffering men and women find a medicine that helps them, they naturally want to tell their friends about it and in this way Sargon is fast becoming a household word throughout America.

Savory Sardines

SARDINES are the babies of the sea in size but not in sophistication. Whoever heard of a sardine's entering into any food combination without giving it a little filip which makes it a distinctive contribution to the world of good cooking. At a home dinner, an informal afternoon tea or a formal dinner the sardine is equally at home.

Sophisticated Recipes

For instance, Russian Sardines are simple to make and delicious. Put a can of sardines in hot water, and boil it for fifteen minutes. Remove from the water and open, being careful that the oil does not spurt out on your hand. Empty the sardines onto a glass dish, and sprinkle liberally with grated orange peel.

To make Sardine Biscuits, bone and mash the sardines from one can and mix with one tablespoon of chopped ripe olives, one tablespoon of lemon juice and two tablespoons of chopped pickled beets. Roll ordinary biscuit dough out until one-fourth inch thick and cut into circles two and one-half inches in diameter. Put a teaspoonful of the sardine mixture on half the circles and moisten the edges. Put the other circles on top and press the edges together with a fork. Bake as usual in a hot oven for twelve to fifteen minutes. These are particularly nice for tea.

Sardines can be used alone or in combination with oysters in a fish cocktail. The sardines may be arranged around the edge of the glass with the little oysters in the middle and the sauce on the oysters.*

Sound Meats Canned

Sound meats, not meat sounds are canned. But if meat sounds could be canned the cans would cackle, grunt, bleat, gobble and moo, for almost every kind of meat may be found in a can.

If all the cans were put together on a shelf, undoubtedly the most noticeable sound would be the bellow, for aside from being the loudest noise of the lot, there would be more cans containing beef. A partial list includes, beef-boiled, corned, dried, roast—beef stew, beef stew with onions, beef hash, Hungarian goulash, ox tongue and beef à la mode.

There would be timid attempts at bellows, too, from the calves, represented by veal loaf, and roast veal, veal tongue and veal liver with bacon and liver with onions.

Grunts from cans of the pork family would come from sliced bacon, deviled ham, ham loaf, and whole hams, pig's feet, sausage in many styles and sausage with sauerkraut.

The King of Them All

Only a few baas would be heard, lamb tongue being the main representatives of the lamb family.

Cackles? Oh, yes, quite a few from boneless chicken, deviled chicken, chicken tamale, chicken curry, chicken à la king and chicken liver sandwich spreads.

And rising above the chorus would come a lordly "Gobble, gobble," from the can wherein repose the remains of the king of fowls, the turkey.*

Daily Beauty In 10 Minutes

By DORIS HALE
 DuBarry Beauty Consultant

You know how restful it is to have a facial in a good beauty salon, to feel the strokes of an expert masseuse. You go out feeling refreshed and soothed, and your skin does look better for a day or so. Then the effect wears off, and you're back where you started. Probably you have thought, "Oh, dear, if I only could go every day I'd be much better looking!"

Busy women haven't time for professional facials every day, and anyway, the expense would be almost prohibitive. But no matter how busy you are, at least you can set aside ten minutes every day for a facial at home, and can make this treatment just as pleasant as if you went to the best beauty parlor.

Of course, one single preparation cannot solve the skin problems of every type, any more than exactly the same diet would suit everybody's physical needs. Thin people need more of certain foods, and those who are plump should eat less of them. The same thing is true in taking care of the skin—for yours may need something that another does not.

I suggest that you study your face carefully to see what it requires, before treating it. Perhaps your skin is too dry or too oily, or you have blackheads, enlarged pores, or sagging lines. A clean skin, however, is the basis for all treatments, so before trying to remedy any of these defects begin by using a good cleansing cream daily. Gently massage it into the face with upward movements, and then remove with cleansing tissues. Follow with whatever special treatment your skin requires.

A friend said to me the other day, "You always say 'smooth the cream on upward all over your face.' Does it make any difference if I use a downward stroke?"

I suppose I have been rather insistent on that upward stroke. The general tendency of the skin is to sag downward, so whenever you are using your finger tips or face, you ought to counteract the sagging of the muscles. A downward movement isn't going to ruin your skin, of course, but habitual downward movements aren't going to do it any good, either.

In all facial treatment you are constantly combating the signs of age, no matter how young you are, because your skin is aging every day. So get into the habit of using upward strokes of the finger tips in applying and removing cream. Like any other good habit it can be learned. And you'll notice in time that your face will tend to lift instead of sag. If your mouth has been drooping at the corners, it gradually will curve upward into a more pleasant expression.
